 - Funding your MBA
- Speak with your employer to explore tuition assistance options and discuss your plans to pursue an executive leadership program.

3. Application Process

- Schedule an in-depth application walkthrough with an enrollment advisor to review requirements, best practices, and your timeline to submit your application.
- Start your application and gather the following materials:
 - Personal Statement of 3–5 pages.

- Transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate institutions attended, including schools where you did not earn a degree. You can provide unofficial transcripts for the application process, however, official transcripts must be provided electronically (preferred) if admitted to the program.
- Two Letters of Recommendation that address your intellectual and personal capabilities. They may come from a supervisor, a member of academia, a mentor, and/or someone who can attest to these capabilities.
- Resume or Curriculum Vitae (CV) detailing all previous work experience with an emphasis on demonstrating leadership growth.
- Standardized Test Scores (GMAT or Executive Assessment) are optional, but can benefit your application. Applicants with an undergraduate GPA lower than a 2.5 are required to take the Executive Assessment (school code 5297).
- Review and apply for financial aid.

4. Next Steps for Admitted Students
